THE FUTURE OF TRANSPORTATION

OUR YEAR IN REVIEW

What a Difference a Year Makes

May 2017 through May 2018

In May 2017, the Florida Department of Transportation (FDOT) District Seven launched Tampa Bay Next and committed to a new approach to transportation planning. We are engaging in two-way dialogue, listening to the community, and collaborating with partner agencies on an unprecedented level.

What is Tampa Bay Next?

Tampa Bay Next is a program to modernize Tampa Bay's transportation infrastructure.

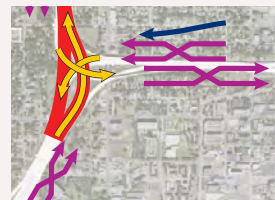

What Problems Are We Trying to Solve?

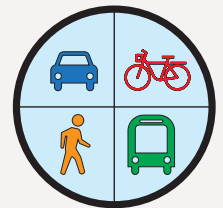

SAFETY

CONGESTION

TRAFFIC OPERATIONS

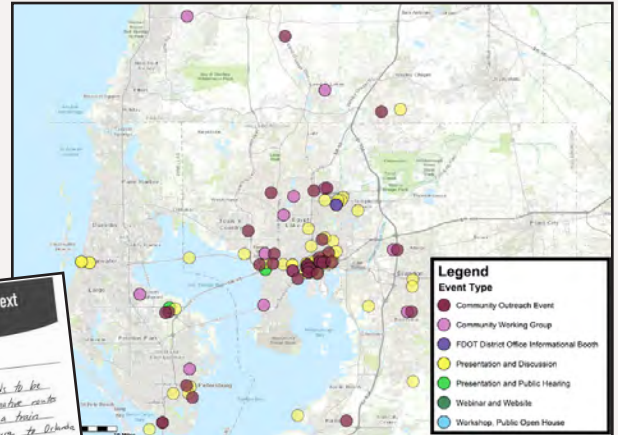

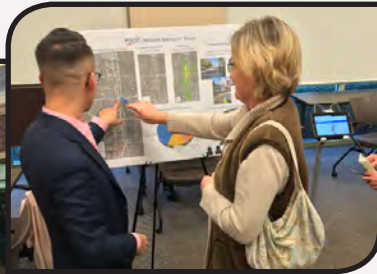

CHOICE

Our goal is to improve safety and mobility through innovation, collaboration, and community engagement.

One Year of Tampa Bay Next

You Talked. We Listened.

We've been doing a lot of public involvement.

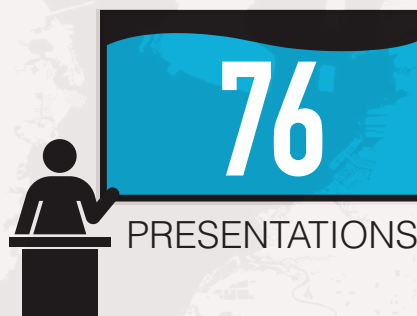

"I'm sick of daily traffic backups. Fix the bottlenecks."

"Improve traffic signals and timing."

"I don't feel safe biking or walking."

"I want better transit."

"Preserve historic neighborhoods."

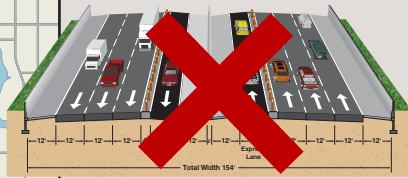

COMMUNITY WORKING GROUPS/OPEN HOUSES

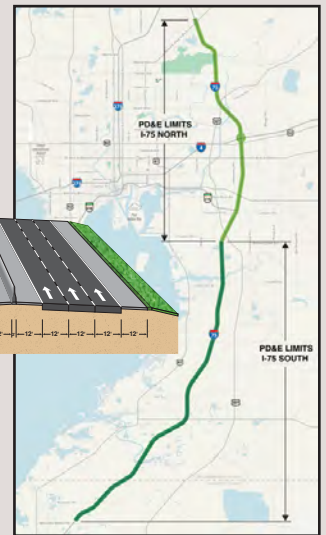

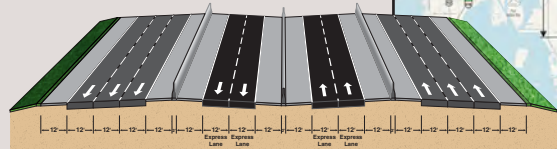

You Talked. We Listened:

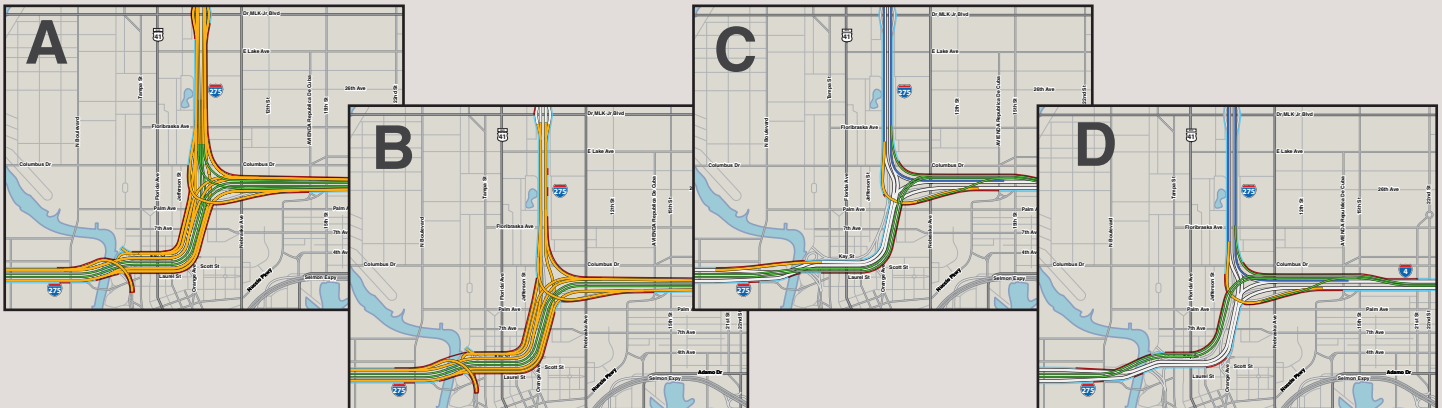

Removed future express lanes from consideration for I-275 north of downtown Tampa

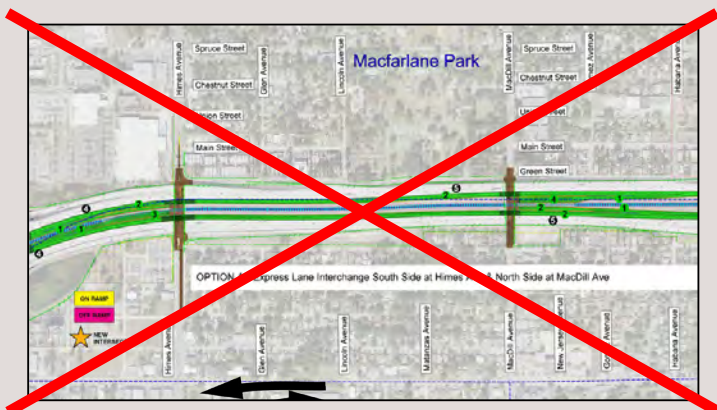

Evaluating I-75 as the Regional North-South Express Lane Corridor

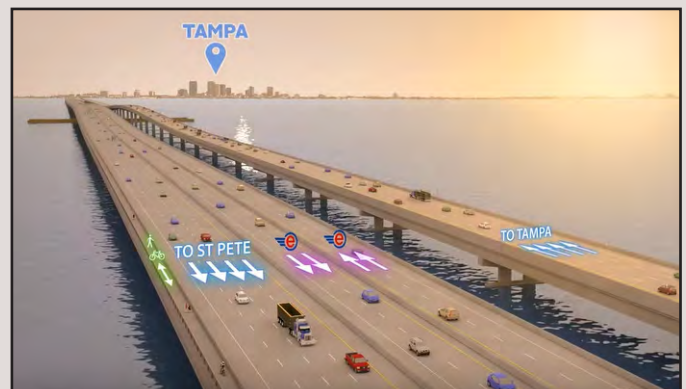

Developed additional Downtown Interchange options that drastically reduce the potential Right of Way impacts

Made adjustments to express lanes access points in the Westshore/West Tampa area

Made adjustments to the Howard Frankland Bridge project plans

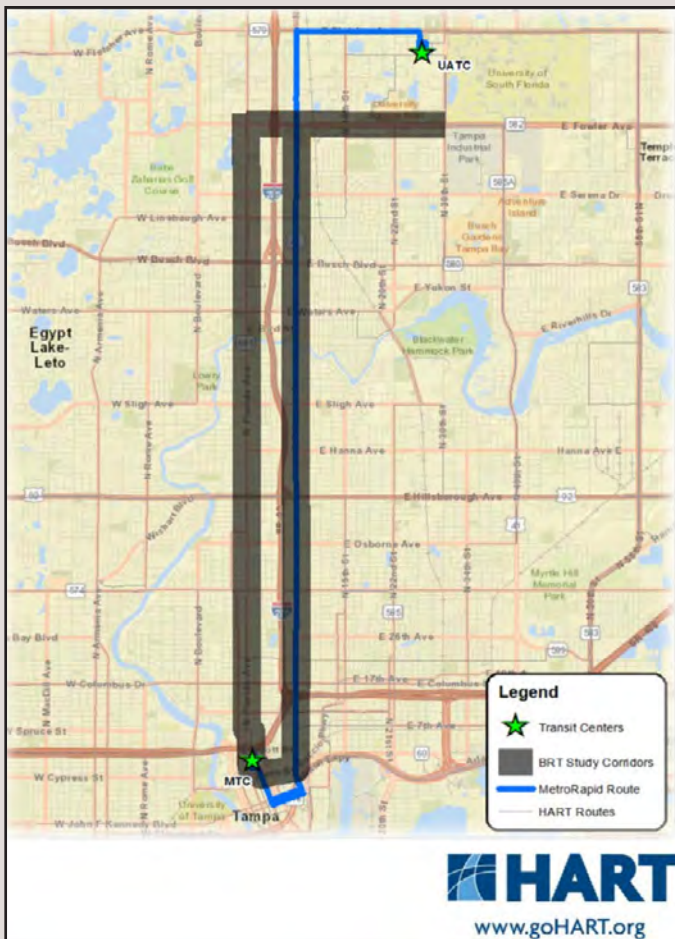

Input Leads To Action

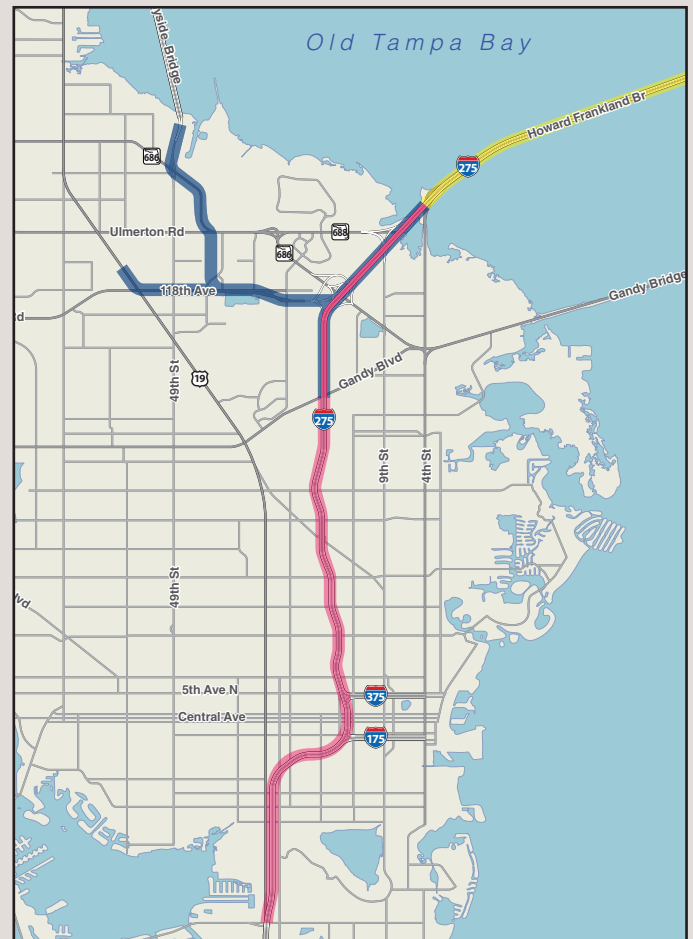

Developed operational improvements to provide near-term congestion relief

Partnered with HART to fund a $2.5 million study to create street-level Bus Rapid Transit along Nebraska, Florida, and Fowler

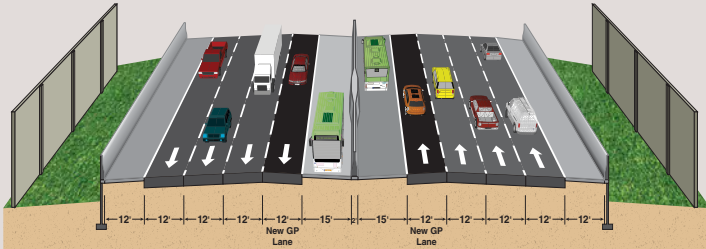

Evaluating a future project to provide lane continuity and express lane project into downtown St. Petersburg

You Talked. We Listened:

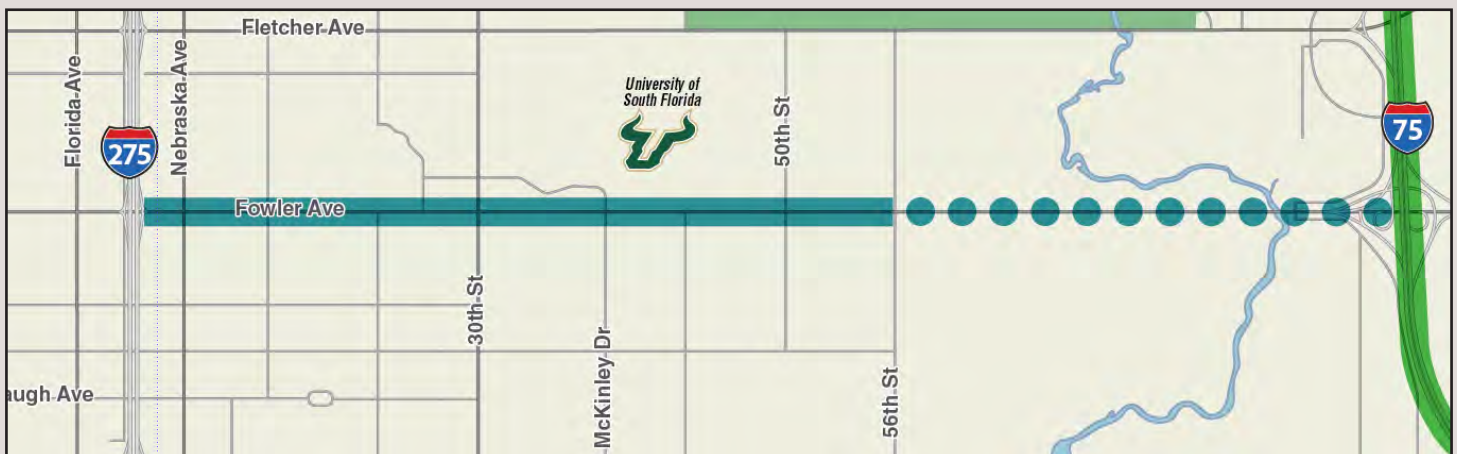

Looked for ways to leverage highway funding for transit opportunities, such as bus on shoulder opportunities

Advanced funding for the Heights Mobility Study to improve safety and mobility on Florida Ave. and Tampa St. in Tampa's urban core

Extended Fowler Ave. Multimodal Study limits to connect all the way to I-75

Initiated studies to identify future Intermodal Centers in Downtown Tampa, Westshore, University (USF) Area, Wesley Chapel, and Gateway

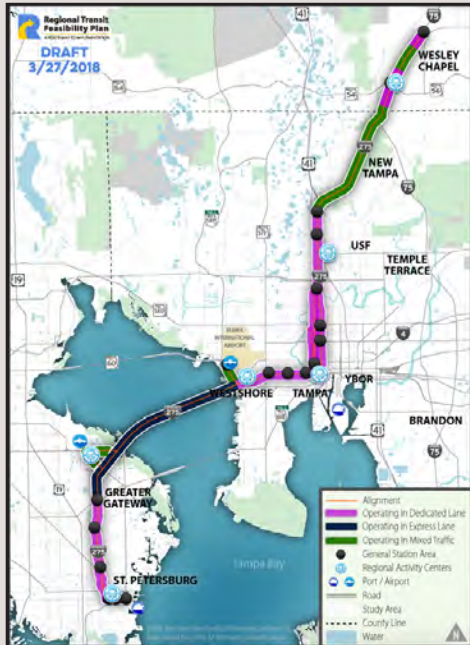

Anaheim Regional Transportation Intermodal Center

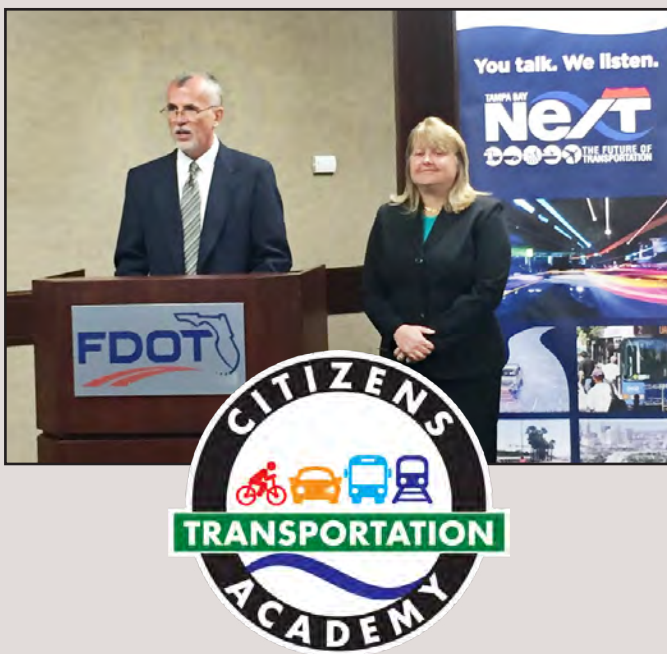

Miami Intermodal Center

Input Leads To Action

Committed $5 million to project development for a regional transit catalyst project to be identified by TBARTA

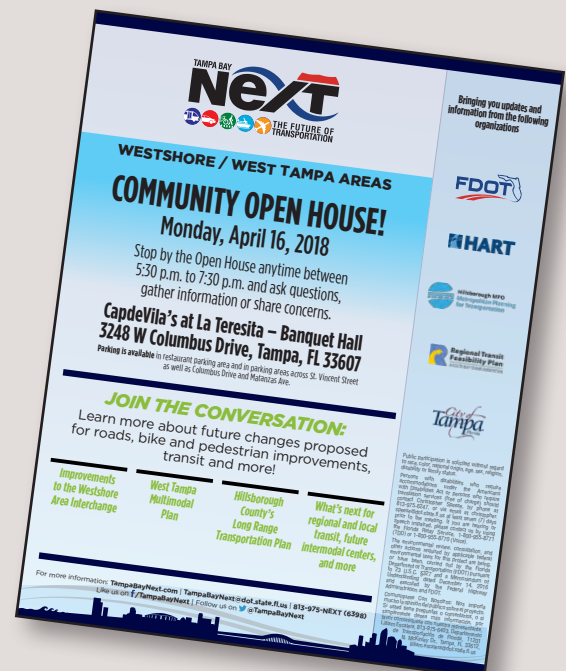

Developed Traffic Systems Maintenance and Operations (TSM&O) Strategies for interstates and arterials to maximize the use of existing infrastructure through technology use

Developed the Citizens Transportation Academy webinar series to educate the public about how transportation is planned and funded in their community

Worked with agency partners to leverage outreach opportunities and offer the public a comprehensive look at the projects and initiatives in their area

You Talked. We Listened:

Conducted East Tampa Listening and Learning Tour

Conducted safety checks and walk-shops in neighborhoods

Worked with neighborhoods to develop plans for FDOT-owned historic properties

Input Leads To Action

Working to increase awareness of opportunities to do business with FDOT
